

Potential Canada Post Strike

Potential Upcoming Canada Post Service Disruption

As you may be aware, Canada Post Corporation and their worker unions are currently in the midst of contract negotiations. This may lead to a nation-wide disruption of mail services starting as early September 26th, 2018.

In the event of a service disruption, please refer to Global Educational Trust Foundation's (GETF) alternative delivery methods:

Financial payments including Education Assistance Payments (EAP), Accumulated Income Payment (AIP), Capital Withdrawals, and Terminations options are:

1. Direct deposit into Subscriber/Beneficiary's bank account (please provide Client Services with banking information)
2. Local Pickup from our Head Office Location
3. Delivered via courier at Subscriber's expense

Client notifications including contract changes and contribution notices.

1. Electronic delivery
2. Copy of notice placed in My Account

With the uncertainty of the Canada Post service disruption, now is a perfect time for you to join our online client portal, MY ACCOUNT, if you haven't already done so! While you're there, we encourage you to go paperless in an effort to avoid any delays in receiving documents and to go green with Global.

GETF will continue to monitor this situation closely. If you have any specific questions or concerns regarding outgoing and incoming document deliveries, please contact client services at 416.740.1622, toll free at 1.877.460.7377 or by email at clientservices@globalresp.com.

For public information on this matter, please visit the Canada Post website.

Thank you,
Client Services
